

REFLECTION SHEET

Date of Session: 11th September 2017

Observer/Tutor: Beverley Woolford

Strengths of session:

Clear objectives set of the overall course units, including how many observations we will have throughout our training. Good starter sessions, which got us on our feet and interacting.

What stood out today from the session?

The breadth of experience and diversity of the group. Also how quick the session went, the pace was good with no clock watching.

How would you implement what you have learnt today into your own practice?

N/A Introduction session, possibly getting my learners on their feet for starter activities.

Areas of development:

N/A

What was the hardest part of today's session?

Comprehending the coursework books and knowing what exactly is required. An effort in being diplomatic with the other learners.

How could I improve on my work in today's session?

N/A